

To the FCC:

As an American citizen, I am pleading that you do not change the rules that are in place regarding the ownership of Newspapers and TV stations.

Already, as I watch and read the papers here in the USA, I am noticing the one sided reporting that I feel we are getting. Any consolidations to one company would be an ingross misjustice to the American People.

As well, to do this at a time when our nation is busy watching and listening to what is happening world wide with terrorism, this would be an unfair time to try to change our current rules. Please, I urge you for the sake of Democracy, leave our current laws as they are.

Sincerely,
Andrea Delany
